

1850 M Street, N.W., 11th Floor
Washington, DC 20036
202 857-1030

DOCKET FILE COPY ORIGINAL

ORIGINAL

EX PARTE OR LATE FILED

RECEIVED

MAY 26 1993

May 26, 1993

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

Donna R. Searcy
Secretary
Federal Communications Commission
Room 222
1919 M St., N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20554

Re: EX PARTE PRESENTATION
CC Docket No. 92-105

Dear Ms. Searcy:

Today, Richard Lawson and I, both of Sprint, met with Peyton

Use of N11 Codes and Other
Abbreviated Dialing Arrangements
CC Docket No. 92-105

Sprint Corporation
May 26, 1993

RECEIVED

MAY 26 1993

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

- Speedy resolution of N11 issue is needed.
 - ◆ Numerous states are actively considering assignment of N11 codes for commercial use.
 - Market place uncertainty
 - Customer confusion
 - ◆ The FCC proceeding is ripe for a decision.

- Commercial use of N11 codes is not in the public interest.
 - ◆ Scarcity ensures competitive disadvantage for some service providers.
 - ◆ N11 codes are not required for the provision of enhanced/information services.
 - ◆ N11 codes should be reserved for public interest/national needs.
 - Possible NPA codes
 - Emergency response services
 - Civil defense reporting
 - Access to dual party relay centers
 - Community announcements
 - Gateway to other services
 - ◆ N11 codes are a short-term solution for access to commercial services.
 - Bellcore, IILC and manufacturers are actively pursuing other abbreviated dialing methods.